To whom it may concern

The Sharpest Pencil is a through the line specialist communications agency with a solid reputation for consistently delivering work of the highest standard. In order to do this, we utilise both in-house and exceptional freelancers.

We have worked with Marlon and Michelle at Art Media for the past year. They have provided various services which include, packaging design, above-the-line print design such as outdoor, digital collateral and website development and design. In each case, I can attest to the fact that they deliver to a very high standard and their turnaround times are phenomenal. They are dedicated professionals and stick with the job, even when we/our clients place seemingly "impossible" demands on them. Their feedback is good and we have a high level of trust in their outputs.

I have no hesitation in recommending Art Media to produce and deliver a very high standard of work for any client who chooses to work with them.

Yours truly,
